

Please tighten the rules for the no call list, and also establish significant consequences for those who choose to violate those "no call" rules. This is a very important matter to me. Also provide for punishment for those who "sell" lists of telephone numbers.